Chapter 1 by Gyro

I'm part of the S. A. T. I. or the Survivors After The Invasion. We are one of the only survivor groups after the revtin invasion. There are other minor ones but we are by far the greatest and have the most resources out of all of them.

Chapter 2 by Dan_K

Day 543 ATI (After the Invasion):

Supplies are running low again. Ever since I joined SATI on Day 145 ATI, I have been rewarded with many resources, supplies, and general happiness.

But we can never keep our hopes too high. Other survival groups are growing stronger, as more and more survivors are found and taken. We have tried again and again to compromise and sign treaties but they always reply with attacks, usually suicide missions and inside jobs. The SATI HQ in UNDISCLOSED LOCATION is slowly falling apart, and talks of relocation are rampant. But the Master (As he likes to be called) will make the end decision. He founded SATI on Day 2 ATI, and is by far the smartest member of our group.

Although the exact population of SATI is unknown, as the Master refuses to give out the real number, it is estimated to be around 1000-1500 survivors and children. The population of all the survivors may be closer to 10,000.

But other survivor groups are not our main problem, it is the Umbits. They are the invaders.

Will Die.
